Happy New Year

We welcome all our Stompers and their families back to pre school on Wednesday 4th January 2017.

We have some new families joining us so to those; a very warm welcome 😊

Kiddie Yoga will return in the New Year with some slight changes –

Carine will be coming in to teach yoga fortnightly on Wednesday afternoons

Winter Weather

In the event of the closure of Stompers due to winter weather, we will announce this on our facebook page and on

<http://www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/webApps/SOS/>

We also try to send you an email to let you know.

Please remember to 'like' our facebook page so you get any notifications. This is also a great way to see what we get up to on a regular basis

SWAT files

Please check your SWAT file on a regular basis. This is where any important letters, receipts and other documents are put for you to collect.

Also encourage your child to be responsible for their drawer – this is where they can keep any art work & drawings they do. Encourage them to check, and empty them daily. We are also talking to the children about respecting other children's drawers too as we have recently found items going missing from drawers, or a collection of Stompers toys being stashed!

Check out these fab recipes for all those leftovers!
